Hi

It's my birthday soon. I'd like to invite all my friends from college to my house. I don't want any presents. We can have some food. I don't want any meat – I know a lot of students don't eat meat. We can listen to English music and just talk. We can have the party in my garden.

Can you help me? Do you know a good pizza takeaway? I'd like to get some food to bring home. I can cook very well but I just haven't got time now. My kids love pizza too.

Let me know.

Iwona

Dear Iwona,

Thank you. I would like to come. I love parties and I love cooking. Can I help you? My sister works in a supermarket and she can buy lots of lovely food at cheap prices. Tell me what you would like.

I can come early – about 4 o'clock – after our lessons. We finish early on Fridays. We can prepare salads and things together.

What can I buy you for your birthday – a CD? I know you like music.

Love
Shabnam

TEXT K

From
To

Dear Iwona,

Thank you for your invitation. I'm sorry, the problem is I am going to London on 22 May – the day of your birthday party. My sister is in hospital. She is having a baby next month and I am looking after her daughter. She is only 2 years old.

I love children but I love parties too. I like speaking English to the students in our class. A lot of them leave early after our lessons and we can't talk to them.

Happy birthday. See you soon.

Elena

TEXT L

From
To

Dear Iwona,

Thank you for your invitation. I am happy to come. I would like to be with you on your birthday.

I work in a café on Fridays serving food. I can't be there at the beginning of your party at 8 o'clock. I finish work at 9 so I can arrive about 9.30. Is that ok? I can find your house easily. My cousin lives next door at 24 Orchard Road.

I have lots of CDs – I listen and sing the words. I know other students like them too. I can bring my CDs and play them at the party.

Best wishes
Judith
