

Below you can find a comparative view of German candidates' performance and the performance of candidates worldwide in the Writing paper of Cambridge B2 First and respectively C1 Advanced, in 2016. For guidance on the writing criteria illustrated in the graphs below please see the Handbook for Teachers for the corresponding exam:
<http://www.cambridgeenglish.org/teaching-english/resources-for-teachers/> Mark 3 is the minimum required to pass the exam and be certified at level B2, respectively C1. Mark 5 is the highest, placing the candidates at the next CEFR level.

Cambridge Assessment
English
Cambridge English B2 First average writing marks 2016

 Cambridge Assessment
English

Cambridge English C1 Advanced average writing marks 2016

