What's in the exam?

The exams are designed to be fair to people of all nationalities and linguistic backgrounds, and are supported by a dedicated research programme. They are work-focused exams which:

- test all four language skills (reading, writing, listening and speaking), plus grammar and vocabulary, in one exam
- use real work-related tasks and activities for practical use in the workplace
- feature a face-to-face Speaking test for a more realistic test of communicating successfully at work.

Your overall performance is calculated by averaging the scores you achieve in Reading, Writing, Listening and Speaking. The weighting of each of the four skills is equal. For more information, and sample papers, go to www.cambridgeenglish.org/bec

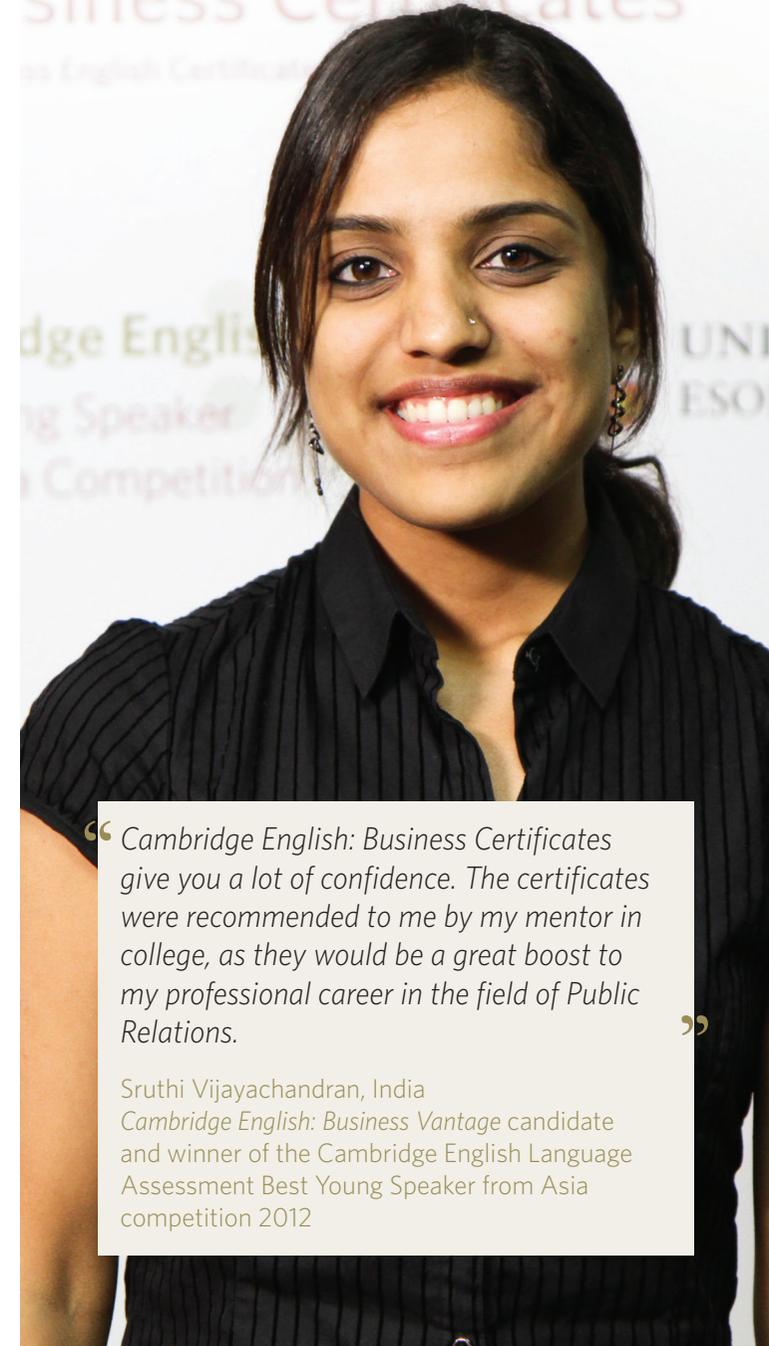

What level are the exams?

These are certificates at three levels, so you can develop and improve your English to the level required by your chosen university or employer. The certificates are aligned to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) – the internationally agreed standard for describing language ability.

- Cambridge English: Business Higher – CEFR Level C1 (*IELTS band scores 7.0–8.0)
The level of English required for demanding study and work settings.
- Cambridge English: Business Vantage – CEFR Level B2 (IELTS band scores 5.5–6.5)
An upper-intermediate level of English.
- Cambridge English: Business Preliminary – CEFR Level B1 (IELTS band scores 4.0–5.0)
A level of English for practical everyday use in an international business environment.

* IELTS (International English Language Testing System) is jointly managed by British Council, IDP: IELTS Australia and Cambridge English Language Assessment.

Business Certificates

“Cambridge English: Business Certificates give you a lot of confidence. The certificates were recommended to me by my mentor in college, as they would be a great boost to my professional career in the field of Public Relations.”
