Hi

It's my birthday soon. I'd like to invite all my friends from college to my house. I don't want any presents. We can have some food. I don't want any meat – I know a lot of students are vegetarians. We can listen to English music and just talk. We can have the party in my garden.

Can you help me? Do you know a good pizza takeaway? I'd like to get some food to bring home. I can cook very well but I just haven't got time now. My kids love pizza too.

Let me know.

Iwona

Iwona invites some of her friends to her party.

Read the letters from Iwona's friends and answer the questions.

TEXT E

Dear Iwona,

Thank you. I would like to come. I love parties and I love cooking. Can I help you? My sister works in a supermarket and she can buy lots of lovely food at reduced prices. Tell me what you would like.

I can come early – about 4 o'clock – after our lessons. We finish early on Fridays. We can prepare salads and things together.

What can I buy you for your birthday – a CD? I know you like music.

Love
Shabnam

TEXT F

Dear Iwona,

Thank you for your invitation. I'm sorry, the problem is I am going to London on 22 May – the day of your birthday party. My sister is in hospital. She is having a baby next month and I am looking after her daughter who is only 2 years old.

I love children but I love parties too. I like speaking English to the students in our class and we don't have a lot of time in college. A lot of them have got jobs after our lessons so they leave early and we can't talk to them.

Happy birthday. See you soon.

Elena

TEXT G

Dear Iwona,

Thank you for your invitation. I am happy to come. I would like to be with you on your birthday.

I work in a café on Fridays serving food. I can't be there at the beginning of the party at 8 o'clock because I only finish work at 9 but I can arrive about 9.30. Is that ok?

I have lots of CDs – I listen and sing the words. I know other students like them too. I can bring my CDs and play them at the party.

Best wishes
Judith
