Boost your practical language level

Every year, thousands of people who want to use English to improve their work, study and travel prospects prepare for Cambridge English: Preliminary.

Gain real-life English skills

The exam shows that you can:

- understand the main points of straightforward instructions or public announcements
- deal with most of the situations you might meet when travelling as a tourist in an English-speaking country
- ask simple questions and take part in factual conversations in a work environment
- write letters/emails or make notes on familiar matters.

Get a certificate that is accepted globally

The exam is accepted by thousands of leading businesses and educational institutions worldwide.

What level is the exam?

The exam focuses on Level B1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). It shows that you have an intermediate level of English.

What's in the exam?

The exam is designed to be fair to people of all nationalities and linguistic backgrounds, and is supported by a dedicated research programme.

It covers all four language skills (Reading, Writing, Listening and Speaking) and knowledge of grammar and vocabulary.

Reading and Writing:
1 hour 30 minutes

Shows that you understand written information, and use structure and vocabulary correctly.

Listening:
30 minutes

Shows that you can understand a range of spoken materials, including everyday conversations.

Speaking:
10-12 minutes

Shows how good your spoken English is in conversation. You take the test face-to-face with one or two other candidates.

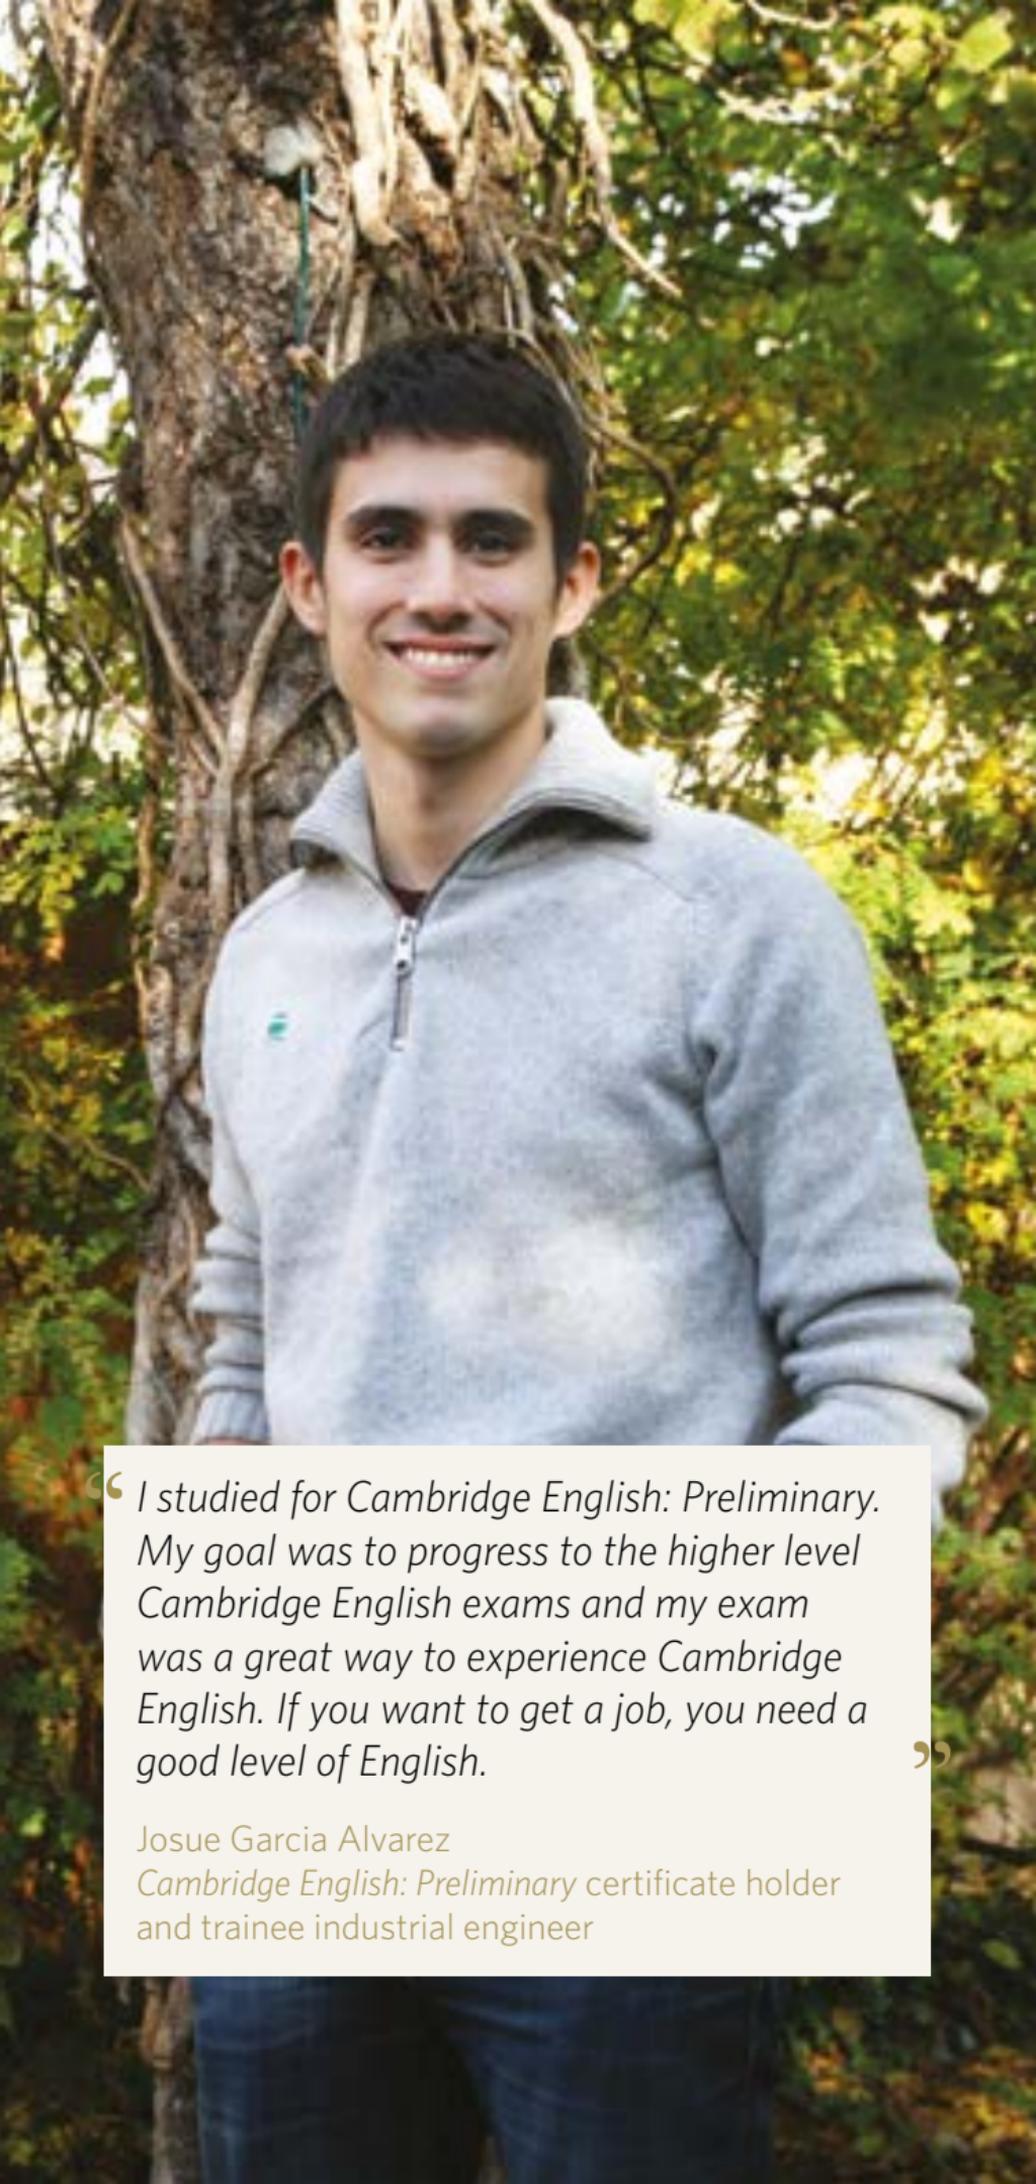

Your overall performance is calculated by averaging the scores you achieve in Reading, Writing, Listening and Speaking. The weighting of each of the four skills is equal.
