Linguaskill Reading and Listening

Reading and Listening test advice for the candidate

Before the test

- Look at the sample test so that you are familiar with the types of questions in the test. This is on the Linguaskill website.
- For more information you can read about the test format and task types section, also on the website.

General test information

- Remember, Linguaskill is an adaptive test. Some questions might be easy and some will be more difficult. The computer chooses the questions based on your previous answers.
- Click on the forward arrow to move to the next screen (add screenshot).
- You can change your answer to any question on the same screen, but you cannot go back to a previous screen.
- The Listening test is first and the Reading test is second.
- To show you how much of the test you have completed, there will either be a progress indicator at the bottom of the screen or a timer.

At the start of the test

- Use the sound check page to make sure your headphones are working.

Listening test advice

- Read the questions and look at the options before you listen.
- Click play when you are ready to listen.
- You can listen to each recording twice.
