About Cambridge Assessment English

We are Cambridge Assessment English. Part of the University of Cambridge, we help millions of people learn English and prove their skills to the world.

For us, learning English is more than just exams and grades. It’s about having the confidence to communicate and access a lifetime of enriching experiences and opportunities.

We deliver qualifications and tests in over 130 countries to over 5.5 million people every year.

The world's most valuable range of English qualifications

Cambridge English Qualifications are in-depth exams that make learning English enjoyable, effective and rewarding.

Our unique approach encourages continuous progression with a clear path to improving language skills. Each of our qualifications focuses on a level of the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR), enabling learners to develop and build speaking, writing, reading and listening skills.

To find out more about Cambridge English Qualifications and the CEFR, go to cambridgeenglish.org/cefr

Cambridge English teaching qualifications

We provide a comprehensive range of industry-leading qualifications, professional development and resources for teachers, wherever they are in their professional journey.

Supporting teachers

All our teaching qualifications are mapped to the Cambridge English Teaching Framework, which helps teachers identify where they are in their career development, where they want to be, and how to get there.

Proven quality

Our commitment to providing assessment of the highest possible quality is underpinned by an extensive programme of research and evaluation, and by continuous monitoring of the marking and grading of all Cambridge English Qualifications. Of particular importance are the rigorous procedures which are used in the production and pretesting of question papers.

All systems and processes for designing, developing and delivering exams and assessment services are certified as meeting the internationally recognised ISO 9001:2008 standard for quality management and are designed around five essential principles:

• Validity – are our exams an authentic test of real-life English or teaching knowledge?
• Reliability – do our exams behave consistently and fairly?
• Impact – does our assessment have a positive effect on teaching and learning?
• Practicality – does our assessment meet candidates' needs within available resources?
• Quality – how we plan, deliver and check that we provide excellence in all of these fields.

How these qualities are brought together is outlined in our publication Principles of Good Practice, which can be downloaded free from cambridgeenglish.org/principles

Introduction to TKT

TKT tests knowledge about English language teaching. The tests are designed to encourage teachers in their professional development and provide a step in their progression on the Cambridge English Teaching Framework. Candidates can also use TKT to access further training and enhance career opportunities.

TKT – an overview

TKT is divided into separate modules. Candidates can take them all, or choose the modules that meet their needs. A certificate is received for each module completed.

The core modules are designed to provide a foundation in the principles and practice of English language teaching:
- TKT: Module 1 – Language and background to language learning and teaching
- TKT: Module 2 – Lesson planning and use of resources for language teaching
- TKT: Module 3 – Managing the teaching and learning process.

Teaching knowledge is assessed by means of objective-format tests, which are simple to administer and to take.

There are further specialist modules, which can be taken separately or added to the core modules:
- TKT: CLIL (Content and Language Integrated Learning)
- TKT: Young Learners.

The aims of the modular format

The format is designed to be accessible and offer candidates maximum flexibility, and therefore does not include a compulsory course component. However, it is likely that centres and other institutions will wish to offer courses for TKT preparation.

TKT: Modules 1–3: an overview

Who are TKT: Modules 1–3 suitable for?

TKT: Modules 1, 2 and 3 test knowledge of concepts related to language, language use and the background to and practice of language teaching and learning.

TKT is suitable for teachers of English in primary, secondary or adult teaching contexts.

TKT: Modules 1, 2 and 3 may be taken by:
- pre-service teachers
- teachers who wish to refresh and extend their teaching knowledge
- teachers who are moving to teaching English after teaching another subject.

Entry criteria and language requirements

Candidates are not required to fulfil any specific entry criteria for TKT: Modules 1, 2 and 3 and there are no formal English language requirements; however, candidates are expected to be familiar with language relating to the practice of English language teaching. A non-exhaustive list of teaching terminology and definitions is provided in the TKT Glossary, which can be downloaded from cambridgeenglish.org/tkt

What can successful candidates do with TKT?

TKT increases teachers’ confidence and enables them to progress to other Cambridge English teaching qualifications.

TKT is recognised as an English language teaching qualification by many organisations and institutions around the world.

Test structure

All three modules include a focus on theory and practice. Each module consists of a timed pencil-and-paper test featuring 80 multiple-choice questions.

TKT: Modules 1, 2 and 3 test candidates’ knowledge of concepts related to language teaching and learning, rather than their proficiency in the English language, or their performance in classroom situations.

Approaches to teaching and learning

A range of approaches to teaching and learning may be covered in the test material. Materials are carefully selected so that they are fair to candidates from all backgrounds and teaching contexts. Knowledge of communicative and other approaches to teaching is expected, as is familiarity with the common terminology of English language teaching (a non-exhaustive list of teaching terminology and definitions is provided in the TKT Glossary).

Sources and text types used in TKT: Modules 1–3

Extracts, original or adapted, from the following sources may feature in TKT: Modules 1, 2 and 3:
- English language teaching coursebooks or supplementary materials
- handbooks on English language teaching and learning
- English language teaching journals and magazines
- testing materials
- grammar books and dictionaries, including phonemic transcription (IPA – International Phonetic Alphabet)
- diagrams or other visuals
- transcriptions of classroom talk
- descriptions of classroom situations
- examples of learners’ writing.
Support for candidates and course providers

Support and general information for TKT, including a downloadable version of this handbook, can be found at cambridgeenglish.org/tkt

Preparing to take TKT: Modules 1–3

It is not necessary to complete a course to enter for TKT: Modules 1, 2 and 3. Candidates can prepare for their exam independently, or can if they prefer, follow a course provided by an exam or teaching qualification centre.

Official Cambridge English preparation materials for TKT: Modules 1, 2 and 3, including books and an online course, have been jointly developed by Cambridge English and Cambridge University Press and can be found at cambridge.org/cambridgeenglish

Materials for course providers

For course providers, teacher training session plans and other trainer resources can be found at cambridgeenglish.org/resources-for-teachers

We also run free seminars and webinars for teachers, with replays available on Cambridge English TV:

Webinars for teachers: cambridgeenglish.org/webinars

Seminars and events: cambridgeenglish.org/events

Cambridge English TV: youtube.com/cambridgeenglishtv

Pretesting

Pretesting of TKT test material provides us with valuable information about candidates’ performance on particular tasks. Pretesting is also useful for centres or institutions, as it gives candidates the opportunity to familiarise themselves with TKT task types under test conditions and to receive feedback on areas of strength and weakness.

If your centre or institution would like to be involved in TKT pretesting, find out more at cambridgeenglish.org/about-pretesting

Further information

Contact your local authorised exam centre or teaching qualification centre, or our helpdesk at cambridgeenglish.org/helpdesk for:

- current fees
- details of exam sessions
- more information about TKT and other Cambridge English teaching qualifications and exams.

TKT: Modules 1–3 administration

Entry procedure

Candidates must enter through an authorised Cambridge English examination or teaching qualification centre. For a list of centres, go to cambridgeenglish.org/teachingcentresearch

TKT tests are available throughout the year and examination centres select their own test dates. Entries must be made at least six weeks in advance of a test date.

Please note that more notice may be necessary if candidates have special requirements and therefore need special arrangements (see section on Special Circumstances).

For copies of the Regulations and more details on entry procedure, current fees and further information about this and our other examinations, contact your local examination centre.

Results

Candidates receive a certificate for each module taken. Candidate performance is reported using four bands.

A full set of band descriptors for each module can be found on page 40.

Notification of results

TKT results are issued to centres approximately two weeks after we receive the answer sheets in Cambridge.

Please note that despatch of candidates’ results will be delayed if they need special consideration or if malpractice is suspected (see section on Special Circumstances).

Enquiries on results must be made through the candidate’s centre.

Appeals procedure

We provide a service to enable centres to appeal, on behalf of candidates, against assessment decisions that affect grades awarded to candidates, e.g. decisions relating to results and decisions relating to irregular conduct.

Candidates should first contact their centre for advice.

For more information about the appeals procedure, go to cambridgeenglish.org/help/enquiries-and-appeals
Special Circumstances

Cambridge English exams are designed to be fair to all test takers. This commitment to fairness covers:

• Special arrangements
  These are available for candidates with a permanent or long-term disability. Consult your Centre Exams Manager (CEM) for more details.

• Special consideration
  We will give special consideration to candidates affected by adverse circumstances such as illness or bereavement immediately before or during an exam. Applications for special consideration must be made through the centre no later than 10 working days after the exam date.

• Malpractice
  We will investigate all cases where candidates are suspected of copying, collusion or breaking the exam regulations in some other way. Results may be withheld while they are being investigated, or because we have found an infringement of regulations. Centres are notified if a candidate’s results have been investigated.

Background to language learning

This part of Module 1 tests candidates’ knowledge of factors underpinning the learning of English by speakers of other languages. It focuses on those learner characteristics which distinguish one learner or group of learners from another in terms of their learning and those which affect both what and how a teacher chooses to teach a class or an individual learner. It also tests candidates’ knowledge of aspects of the language-learning process and their impact on teaching.

Candidates need to demonstrate an understanding of concepts and terminology related to the following and their implications for the L2 classroom:

What readers do
34 They quickly search the text to find particular information.
35 They decide how writers feel from the way that they write.
36 They use parts of the text to help them understand unfamiliar lexis.
37 They look at a text quickly to get a general understanding.
38 They look at how the information is structured, by noticing headings or introductory phrases.
39 They focus on how language is used in a piece of text.
40 They use titles and pictures to give themselves ideas about what the text is about.

For questions 41 – 45, match the things the teacher does with the ways in which the students are motivated listed A – F.
Mark the correct answer (A – F) on your answer sheet.
There is one extra option which you do not need to use.

Ways students are motivated
A This makes students feel that the course is well organised.
B Students feel more comfortable when talking about what they know best – themselves!
C Students like to hear they have done well.
D Using their imagination can help students to get more involved in their fluency work.
E Students often like ‘being the teacher’ and explaining things to other students.
F I find this allows me to keep students’ attention by quickly changing the pace of the lesson.

Things the teacher does
41 I sometimes get my students to choose a general interest topic to research and give mini-presentations on.
42 I connect some of the texts and speaking topics in the coursebook to my students and their lives.
43 I have some favourite ‘five-minute’ fun activities ready for whenever I need them.
44 I tell my students each week what they’re going to study.
45 I use drama and role-play in the classroom.
For questions 46 – 50, look at the examples of what learners do and the three possible learning strategies listed A, B and C.

Choose the strategy which matches the example.
Mark the correct letter (A, B or C) on your answer sheet.

46 I focus on the language I use to make sure it is correct.
A memorising
B revising
C self-monitoring

47 If I don’t know a word, I try to work it out from the rest of the sentence.
A paraphrasing
B using linguistic clues
C translating

48 I make notes about how native speakers use English in films and TV shows.
A paying attention to language use
B organising learning aids
C predicting content from the situation

49 I keep small cards with new expressions on them and test myself on them when I’m travelling to work.
A developing routines for revision
B experimenting with language
C accepting correction

50 If I don’t know what something means, I look it up.
A focusing on collocations
B using opportunities for practice
C consulting reference materials

For questions 51 – 55, match the learners’ comments with the learners’ preferences listed A, B and C.
Mark the correct letter (A, B or C) on your answer sheet.

Learners’ comments
51 I like it when the teacher gives me a card with a word or phrase on and I have to act it out for the rest of the class to guess the word.
A paying attention to language use
B organising learning aids
C predicting content from the situation

52 I enjoy putting new vocabulary into a table or diagram. It helps me to remember words.
A paraphrasing
B using linguistic clues
C translating

53 If we find a new word while we’re reading, the teacher often writes it on the board. But I always ask her to say it too and I repeat it a couple of times.
A paying attention to language use
B developing routines for revision
C accepting correction

54 Sometimes we cover our eyes and the teacher asks us to pick an object out of a bag. Then we have to try to describe it. It’s a really good way of learning.
A focusing on collocations
B using opportunities for practice
C consulting reference materials

55 I collect magazines and cut out the photos I like. They’re very useful for getting ideas for telling stories.
A I remember language well when I see it.
B I remember language well when I hear it.
C I remember language well when I move.

Learners’ preferences

56 real beginners who prefer a structural approach and like to have a clear focus on new language
57 those learners who just want to communicate, using all the language they know to convey meaning
58 learners who like to study grammar and lexical patterns and check what they already know
59 learners at a higher level who enjoy doing exercises on language but have already studied the structures
60 learners who enjoy doing extended pieces of work such as project work
61 learners who are not confident about experimenting with language or those who have little exposure to English

13
For questions 62 – 67, match the sequence of classroom activities from a lesson on offers and requests with the presentation techniques listed A – G.
Mark the correct letter (A – G) on your answer sheet.

Sequence of classroom activities

62 The teacher wrote the topic of the day’s lesson on the board: ‘Making requests’.
63 The teacher asked some students to tell the class about important requests they had made in their lives.
64 The students did an exercise completing gaps in sentences with the correct forms of requesting verbs.
65 The teacher elicited whether words and phrases like can, could and would you mind were followed by the base form or verb+ -ing in the sentences.
66 The teacher asked students to tell her which forms would be used in particular contexts, e.g. speaking to your friend; speaking to your teacher; etc.
67 The teacher drilled the sentences chorally, paying attention to connected speech.
For questions 68 – 74, match the classroom activities on the left with the types of speaking practice listed A, B and C. Mark the correct letter (A, B or C) on your answer sheet.

Syllabus

This module focuses on what teachers consider and do while planning their teaching of a lesson or series of lessons. Teaching in this context is intended also to refer to assessment. It focuses too on the linguistic and methodological reference resources that are available to guide teachers in their lesson planning as well as on the range and function of materials and teaching aids that teachers could consider making use of in their lessons. Knowledge of any particular book is not required.

Planning and preparing a lesson or sequence of lessons

This part of Module 2 tests candidates’ knowledge of the relationship between activities and aims. It also tests knowledge of ways of sequencing activities within and across lessons in a manner appropriate to particular groups of learners, and of selecting appropriate assessment activities to build into (a series of) lessons.

Candidates need to demonstrate an understanding of concepts and terminology related to:

Mark the correct letter (A, B, or C) on your answer sheet.

There is one extra option which you do not need to use.
For questions 13 – 19, match the lesson aims with the target language listed A – H. Mark the correct letter (A – H) on your answer sheet.

There is one extra option which you do not need to use.

Lesson aims

13 to help students understand and produce the spoken form of regular past tenses
14 to help students write a set of instructions for a process
15 to help students make contrasts
16 to help students hold a discussion on a current topic
17 to help students write questions for a survey about favourite holiday activities
18 to help students understand and use the third conditional
19 to help students talk about family relationships

Target language

A expressions for agreeing and disagreeing
B question tags
C possessive adjectives
D verb + gerund
E the comparative form of adjectives
F weak forms in connected speech for would / have / had
G verb endings /u/, /d/, /ed/
H joining phrases, such as first of all, next and at the end

For questions 20 – 27, match the information from different lesson plans with the lesson plan headings listed A, B and C. Mark the correct letter (A, B or C) on your answer sheet.

You will need to use some of the options more than once.

Lesson plan headings

A Aims
B Procedure
C Assumptions

Information from different lesson plans

20 Students will remember how to form present perfect simple statements from the last lesson.
21 By the end of the lesson, students will be able to form present perfect simple questions.
22 Improve use of functional language for talking about experiences.
23 Ask pairs to act out a role-play between a reporter and a film star.
24 Students already know what a past participle is.
25 Students could complete the second task if they finish early.
26 Students may have problems with authentic listening.
27 Students listen to the recording to check their answers.
For questions 28 – 33, read the stages of the lesson plan about the advantages and disadvantages of school and work and fill in the missing stages from the options listed A – F.

Mark the correct letter (A – F) on your answer sheet.

Missing stages

A Students read the article, answer comprehension questions and check their answers in pairs.

B Students look at a picture of a schoolgirl called Anna, and the title of an article about her, and then read some questions a journalist asked her.

C Students complete a gapped paragraph, using appropriate language forms.

D Students read some opinions of people who work, and tick (√) the ones they agree with.

E Students read the article quickly, underlining the answers given to the journalist's questions.

F Students use the information from the article to act out the interview.

Lesson plan

• In groups, students brainstorm their own views on the advantages and disadvantages of being at school.

28 ... ...

• Students compare their ideas and discuss in pairs whether they think school is better or worse than being at work.

29 ... ...

• Students predict the content of the newspaper interview.

30 ... ...

• Students check in pairs.

31 ... ...

• The teacher leads whole-class feedback.

• The teacher tells the class to work in pairs: one of them is Anna and the other is the journalist.

32 ... ...

• The teacher sticks some of the advantages and disadvantages of being at school or working, and notes these on the board, e.g. work hours are more flexible than school hours; working is better paid than going to school

• Students look at the sentences on the board and the teacher revises comparatives.

33 ... ...

• Students write up their views on the advantages and disadvantages of school and work.
For questions 34 - 40, look at a teacher's assessment aims and the three possible methods of assessment for each listed A, B and C.

Two of the methods of assessment are appropriate for each aim. One of the methods is NOT.

Mark the method (A, B or C) which is NOT appropriate on your answer sheet.

34 To assess whether students have understood how to use narrative tenses, it would NOT be appropriate for
A students to tell each other a story about a time when they were very surprised.
B students to complete a story in which some of the verbs have been taken out.
C students to read a story and select three pictures which best match what happened.

35 To assess whether students have understood some basic information about article use, it would NOT be appropriate for
A students to underline examples of articles in a text and then select the rule which best explains the use in each case.
B students to circle examples of articles in a text and categorise them according to their use.
C students to read a text containing examples of different uses of articles and translate the text into their L1.

36 To assess whether students can use comparative structures in spoken English, it would NOT be appropriate for
A students to compare their own country with another, using at least five comparatives.
B students to correct the mistakes in the use of comparatives in a short report.
C students to talk about food from different countries and say how it is similar or different.

37 To assess whether students can use punctuation to communicate clearly, it would NOT be appropriate for
A students to label different features of punctuation, e.g. comma, full stop, in a letter.
B students to write a letter to a friend, telling him/her about their latest news.
C students to punctuate a short letter which has been written without any punctuation.

9

38 To assess whether students know when to use used to for past habits, it would NOT be appropriate for
A students to write about what they did as a child, responding to prompts, e.g. clothes, toys.
B students to write monologues about a man who has become famous, contrasting his old and new life.
C students to tell a story about something funny which happened to them as a child.

39 To assess whether students can use functional exponents for buying something in a shop, it would NOT be appropriate for
A students to write short dialogues between shop assistants and customers.
B students to complete the shop assistant’s part of a dialogue in a shop.
C students to do a role-play between a shop assistant and customer, changing roles after a few minutes.

40 To assess whether students can use the present perfect, it would NOT be appropriate for
A students to discuss the positive and negative experiences they had at primary school.
B students to mingle to find out who has the most experience of travelling to other countries.
C students to write questions for a job interview to find out about an applicant’s work experience.

For questions 41 - 47, look at the types of information and extracts from two different dictionaries.

Decide which extract (A or B) contains each type of information.

If the type of information is NOT given in either extract A or B, choose C (neither).

Mark the correct letter (A, B or C) on your answer sheet.

You will need to use some of the options more than once.

Dictionary extracts

A Extract A

43 individual words which have a similar meaning to the headword
44 common phrases
45 words which have the opposite meaning to the headword
46 more than one meaning of the headword
47 example of the position of the headword in a sentence

11

For questions 48 - 54, choose which unit in a pronunciation resource book listed A - H, a teacher could use to help her students with their pronunciation problems.

Mark the correct letter (A - H) on your answer sheet.

There is one extra option which you do not need to use.

Students' pronunciation problems

48 Students can't hear the difference between bin and been, bed and bed.
49 Students find it hard to say the underlined parts of words like: spoon, exercise, mistake.
50 Students pronounce each word separately, so their speech doesn't sound smooth.
51 Students' speech in conversations sounds flat and uninterested.
52 Students sometimes mispronounce words which have the same spelling but a different meaning, such as to record / a record, to present / a present.
53 Students can't hear individual words when people talk.
54 Students don't pronounce the phonemes /ʃ/, /ʒ/, /ɪ/, /ɜ:/, /ɪː/. They replace them with corresponding phonemes /ʃ/, /ʒ/, /iː/, /ɪ:/.

Units in a pronunciation resource book

A Recognising minimal pairs
B Understanding connected speech
C Producing voiced consonants
D Expressing attitude through voice
E Practising groups of consonant sounds
F Distinguishing parts of speech through stress
G Using contrastive stress
H Practising linking
For questions 55 – 69, match the classroom activities with the reasons for using pictures in class listed A – G.

Mark the correct letter (A – G) on your answer sheet.

There is one extra option which you do not need to use.

Reasons for using pictures

A to raise awareness of intonation
B to provide linguistic support before receptive skills work
C to practise reading for detail
D to practise extensive listening
E to practise listening for specific information
F to provide controlled spoken practice
G to provide practice in producing a paragraph of text

Classroom activities

55 Students look at some pictures of people and match descriptions from a magazine article with the pictures.
56 Students, in groups, look at pictures painted by famous artists and express their opinions, using a dialogue which they learned earlier to support them.
57 Students listen to a recording of five people saying 'hello' and look at pictures of people whose faces show different feelings. They match the feelings to the speakers.
58 Students look at six pictures and put them in the order they are mentioned in a short recording.
59 Students look at a picture. The teacher focuses on words students need to know in an article they will study later in the lesson.
60 Students look at a picture of a person they know well and write a description of the person.

Learners' problems with their coursebook

61 I can’t understand how to do the exercises in the progress tests.
62 There’s lots of new and useful vocabulary in the book, but it’s difficult to remember.
63 I like the reading texts, but there’s so much language that I don’t understand in them.
64 The book has lots of fun speaking activities, but it doesn’t introduce much new grammar.
65 I never know what to write about so I don’t do the writing tasks well.
66 Every unit is the same ... it gets a bit boring after a while.
67 The listening practice in the coursebook is too easy for me.

Strategies

A Get students to brainstorm ideas in pairs or as a group before they start.
B Use repetition drills for practice in listening to and producing structures.
C Use supplementary materials to extend the coursebook topic and provide a variety of approaches to texts and language.
D Suggest that students keep a record on cards or in a notebook and review this regularly.
E Give students practice in class with similar task types.
F Familiarise students with some internet sites that can help them learn rules about language.
G Tell students about internet sites where they can hear ungraded, authentic language.
H Train students to work with key words and to deduce meaning from context.
For questions 68 – 73, match the main aims of the coursebook activities with the sequence of coursebook activities listed A – G.

Mark the correct letter (A – G) on your answer sheet.

There is one extra option which you do not need to use.

Main aims

68 to focus on peer correction
69 to focus on written accuracy
70 to practise reading for gist
71 to focus on content when planning a formal letter of complaint
72 to give interactive filler practice
73 to practise reading for attitude

Sequence of coursebook activities

A Look through these letters from people who have just returned from holiday. Match the letters (1–4) to the main subjects of complaint (a–d).

B Look at each letter again. Decide which writer is the most angry about his/her complaint.

C Read the description of a problem a student has with his accommodation and decide:
   What information could the student include in a letter to his landlord, the owner of the accommodation?

D Work in pairs. One of you is the student who is renting the accommodation and the other is the landlord. The student telephones the landlord. Role-play the discussion and record yourselves.

E Listen to the recordings of your classmates and identify any mistakes you hear.

F Now use the words and expressions about time and frequency in the box to complete the letter that the student sent to the landlord.

G Make notes of any new words and expressions you want to learn from this unit.

Adapted from IELTS Express Intermediate by Hallows R., Lisboa M. and Unwin M. Thomson, 2006
For questions 74 – 80, match the questions with the supplementary activities listed A, B and C.

Mark the correct letter (A, B or C) on your answer sheet.

You will need to use some of the options more than once.

Supplementary activities

A  Work in pairs. You each have a picture of some children in a playground, but your pictures are not the same. Talk together and find the differences. When you have finished, compare your pictures.

B  Look at this picture of a room in a house for one minute. You are not allowed to write anything down. When your teacher tells you, turn your picture over, then write down the answers to the questions you will be asked on a separate piece of paper.

C  You have a map with a route which starts at the station and ends at the library. Student B has the same map without a route. Give directions to help him/her to draw the same route as yours. You are not allowed to show him/her your map.

Questions

74  Which activity is useful for practising imperatives?
75  Which activity practises the present continuous?
76  Which activity provides a more challenging role for one partner?
77  Which activity could be used as a calming individual activity after a lively game?
78  Which activity can be used to practise questions using some and any?
79  Which activity depends on memory?
80  Which activity provides both students with a reason for listening?

Teachers’ and learners’ language in the classroom

This part of Module 3 tests candidates’ knowledge of the functions of classroom language, and how to adapt teacher language according to its audience and purpose. It also tests candidates’ knowledge of the appropriacy of teachers’ classroom language, how to analyse learners’ language and categorise learners’ errors.

Candidates need to demonstrate an understanding of concepts and terminology related to:

</table>
| The functions commonly used by the teacher in the classroom | • identification of a range of classroom functions and typical exponents
• appropriacy of use, e.g. degrees of simplicity of language, appropriateness of sequencing, degrees of formality, use of L1 |
| Identifying the functions of language used by learners in the classroom (tasks may involve analysis of learner language which is not completely accurate) | • identification of common functions and typical exponents
• identification of communicative purpose
• appropriacy of use |
| Categorising learners’ mistakes                   | • categorising types of mistakes, e.g. spelling, wrong verb form, subject–verb agreement |

Classroom management

This part of Module 3 tests candidates’ knowledge of the range and function of strategies available to a teacher for managing classes in ways appropriate to learners and to teaching and learning aims. These include variety of activity and pace, ways of grouping learners, techniques for correcting learners’ mistakes and the roles a teacher can fulfil at different stages of the lesson.

Candidates need to demonstrate an understanding of concepts and terminology related to the following and their implications for the L2 classroom:

Instructions to a class

- Good morning everyone, please sit down and listen to what I'm going to tell you about these pictures.

14

- Now get into pairs and work with the person sitting next to you.

15

- Before I give them to you there is one thing you must remember – your picture is top secret! So don't show them to each other. Okay, so now you have the pictures you are ready to start the task. Listen to what I want you to do.

16

- I would like you to work quite quickly, so...

17

- Right, time's up, so finish your last question.

18

- Well done everybody, you worked well. Now let's see if your answers are correct. Listen carefully and see if you agree with each other's answers.

19

Missing instructions

A  You have 10 minutes to do this.
B  Michael, can you tell me one of the differences you found?
C  Ask each other questions to find the differences.
D  Okay, stop now and turn to the front of the class.
E  There are two pictures. They look the same, but there are five differences.
F  I am going to give one picture to Student A, and one to Student B.

Dear Sean

You asked me in your last letter about my bedroom. My bedroom is (27) not big as the one I had before. This one is smaller. It has two windows so it has (28) a lot of light and I’ve painted the room blue. I would like to have (29) big, bright yellow because (30) I haven’t! Last week I painted it (31) orange. I like to see myself before I go out. At the moment I don’t. This is the most important things that I need. (32) I think that every day my room will get (33) more lively.

With me soon,

Finn

Dear Susan and Nick.

I’m writing to give you some information about Theo’s travel arrangements.

OM 197, arriving to Melbourne at 11:20 am the next day.

He travels by train.

In case you have problems to recognize him I’ve enclosed a recent photograph.

He’s quite tall with brown long hair. He’s got green eyes.

He’s going to wear a dark blue T-shirt, jeans and black trainers for his trip.

Please let me know if there is anything you would like him to bring from Germany.

Yours sincerely,

Gordis

Functions

A changing topic
B agreeing
C asking for an opinion
D asking for clarification
E giving clarification
F hesitating
G correcting
H disagreeing

A student's classroom conversation

Kata: So, how long have you lived here, then?
Lydia: (34) In this town?
Kata: Yeah.
Lydia: I was born here, so I know it (35) um, um ... like the back of my hand.
Kata: Like the back of ...?
Lydia: (36) It's an expression that you use when you know something really well. I like it.
Kata: (37) Yeah, it's a good one. 'Like the back of my hand', I must remember that.
Lydia: (38) Anyway, how about you? How long have you lived here?
Kata: (39) Have you lived here? you mean.
Lydia: Oh yeah, that's right.
Kata: About three years. It's a really nice town.
Lydia: It's so boring. (40) You can't mean that.

For questions 41 – 47, match the learner comments with the teacher roles listed A, B and C.
Mark the correct letter (A, B or C) on your answer sheet.
You will need to use some of the options more than once.

Teacher roles

A Manager (manages students and activities during class time)
B Provider (gives expert information about target language)
C Diagnostician (finds out the needs and interests of students)

Learner comments

41 My teacher always makes the lessons exciting. We work with lots of different people during a lesson.
42 I couldn't understand the present perfect at all, but my teacher explained it really clearly to me.
43 I always finish my work very quickly, but my teacher always has extra activities for me to do, so I never get bored.
44 The teacher gave us a questionnaire about why we were doing the class and what our aims were for the future.
45 There's one student in our class who is really noisy and talkative, but our teacher is so calm and patient, and makes sure we get our turn to talk as well.
46 Last week we made a list of topics and voted on the ones we most wanted to discuss in class.
47 My group wrote an essay on what music we like and the teacher really helped us to join our ideas together.
For questions 48 – 54, look at the classroom management terms and three possible descriptions listed A, B and C.

Choose the description which matches the term.
Mark the correct letter (A, B or C) on your answer sheet.

Classroom management terms

Interaction patterns

48. Interaction patterns
- A the different ways learners work together in class
- B common mistakes learners make when they speak a second language
- C the gestures learners use to keep the listener interested in what they are saying

Rapport

49. Rapport
- A the help a teacher gives to learners in class
- B the relationship between teacher and learners
- C the end-of-term comments the teacher writes about each learner's work

Mingling

50. Mingling
- A a group activity which involves students reading different parts of the same text and sharing the information they found out
- B a whole class activity which involves learners walking around the classroom sharing information with other learners
- C a whole class activity which involves learners sharing vocabulary they know about a topic

Group dynamics

51. Group dynamics
- A the relationship between learners in the class
- B different groups of learners working autonomously in class
- C the strategies a group uses to work together to complete a project

Nominating

52. Nominating
- A The teacher chooses and names a learner to do a task.
- B The teacher chooses and tells the class the date for a revision test.
- C The teacher chooses and writes the main aim of the lesson on the board.

Grading language

53. Grading language
- A The teacher monitors learners' use of target language.
- B The teacher reviews the language learners need to use in a task.
- C The teacher uses language that is at the right level for learners.

A learning contract

54. A learning contract
- A a description of a learner's abilities and needs
- B an agreement between teacher and learners about their roles and responsibilities
- C an explanation of the aims of a course
For questions 55 – 61, match the examples of teachers' language with the uses listed A, B and C.
Mark the correct letter (A, B or C) on your answer sheet.
You will need to use some of the options more than once.

Uses

A  language for eliciting
B  language for setting the scene
C  language for maintaining discipline

Examples of teachers' language

55  Pons down and face the front please, Khaled and Abdul.
56  Fine, well done. So we call this tense ... ?
57  Right, so Dave is going to meet Steve, and wants to find out how to recognise him.
58  You remember the 'air' rule, don't you, everyone? This is a test, remember. So only look at your own work, please.
59  If you remember from last time, Ahmed and Hassan were going to the airport to meet their cousin.
60  Good. So what's best here -- 'a' or 'an'?
61  So what do we call this animal with four legs? It likes to catch mice.

For questions 62 – 67, match the advice on correcting given to a trainee teacher with the correction strategies listed A –
Mark the correct letter (A – ) on your answer sheet.
There is one extra option which you do not need to use.

Advice on correcting

62  When you hear a mistake, repeat it to the student with a rising intonation so they can hear where in the sentence the mistake was made.
63  Don't interrupt the activity; just note down any mistakes you hear and deal with them at the end.
64  Repeat what the student has said but with the error corrected.
65  Ask students to look at each other's work and find any mistakes.
66  Write common mistakes on the board and see if students can spot mistakes.
67  Write a symbol for each type of error, eg 'T' for a tense mistake, at the side of a student's work.

Correction strategies

A  use a correction code
B  employ the technique of echo correction
C  over-apply the rule
D  give delayed feedback
E  reformulate the sentence
F  allow opportunities for self monitoring and group correction
G  encourage peer correction
14
For questions 63 – 74, match the examples of teachers giving feedback with the aims of feedback listed A, B and C.

Mark the correct letter (A, B or C) on your answer sheet.
You will need to use some of the options more than once.

Aims of feedback

A  to encourage students’ ability to self-correct
B  to raise student self-confidence
C  to improve classroom relationships

Teachers giving feedback

68. You’re going to do your projects in teams with a specific task for each member of the team. It’s important for the team that everyone does their task properly.
69. As you were practising the role play, I noticed quite a few of you were forgetting about articles. Try it again and pay particular attention to your use of articles.
70. I thought you acted out these dialogues very well. You generally noticed when you’d made a mistake and were able to correct it.
71. Your work has improved a great deal so now let’s try something more difficult.
72. I’ve listened to your recordings and written some comments on them. Before I give you these, listen to your own recording. What comments do you think I made?
73. Remember that you can learn by listening as well as speaking. So please pay attention when other students are talking.
74. This week’s homework is much better. All that work we did on checking your writing really seems to have helped.

Interaction patterns

A  class divided into two groups
B  closed pairs
C  groups of three or four

Teachers’ comments

75. It gives the shyer students the maximum opportunity to talk.
76. There is usually a good mix of opinions but not too many people trying to talk at the same time.
77. It’s a quick way to set up a competition. The learners get very excited about working against the other team.
78. It’s the simplest way to introduce some communication into any activity. Students can compare answers or help each other with an exercise.
79. This is good for project work where learners need to perform different roles.
80. The only way I can do a jigsaw listening is by sending half the class to the language laboratory.

Teaching Knowledge Test Candidate Answer Sheet

Instructions
Use a PENCIL (B or HB).
Rub out any answer you want to change with an eraser.

For Parts 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5:
Mark ONE letter for each answer.
For example: If you think A is the right answer to the question, mark your answer sheet like this:

Supervisor: If the candidate is ABSENT or has WITHDRAWN shade here 〇

More Cambridge English teaching qualifications and courses

We offer a number of practical, flexible courses and qualifications for new or experienced English language teachers:

CELTA (Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages)

CELTA is an initial qualification for people with little or no previous teaching experience, or who have experience but no qualification. The CELTA course focuses on the principles of effective teaching and a range of practical skills for teaching English to adult learners. The course includes hands-on teaching practice and an alternative blended learning delivery option.

DELTA (Diploma in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages)

DELTA is a flexible way for experienced English language teachers to progress further in their careers. DELTA can be taken at any stage in a teacher’s career and is ideal for those wanting to develop/extend their teaching knowledge and improve their teaching practice. It is made up of three independent modules which can be taken in any order and over any time period. Candidates receive a certificate for each module passed. On completion of all three modules, teachers can request the over-arching DELTA certificate. There are both face-to-face and blended/online delivery options.

The following courses and qualifications are available to teachers through institutions and educational authorities:

CELT-P (Certificate in English Language Teaching – Primary)

This qualification is for English language teachers working in primary education (6–12 year olds). Teachers learn how to improve their classroom performance through a combination of online study and observed teaching practice.

CELT-S (Certificate in English Language Teaching – Secondary)

This qualification is for English language teachers working in secondary education (11–18 year olds). Teachers improve their classroom performance through a combination of online study and observed teaching practice.

Language for Teaching courses

The three Language for Teaching courses are for English language teachers working in primary and secondary education. They give teachers the language they need to teach English with confidence. Teachers improve their general English, as well as learn the professional language they need for effective communication in English, both inside and outside the classroom. Each Language for Teaching course covers one level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR), so the three courses combined take teachers from CEFR Level A1 to B2. On completion, teachers can consider taking a Cambridge English language exam.

Certificate in EMI Skills

The Certificate in EMI Skills is for higher education teaching staff whose first language is not English, but who use English as the Medium of Instruction to deliver their subject. It helps institutions to enhance teaching quality by improving the English skills of their faculty.

Train the Trainer

This course is for experienced teachers who would like to develop the knowledge and skills to become teacher trainers. It combines the development of generic training skills with course-specific familiarisation. The course will enable experienced teachers to provide training on the CELT-P and CELT-S courses.
