Prove your knowledge of Teaching: TKT - The Teaching Knowledge Tests

Sarah Ellis

17:05 - 17:25

TKT is a series of modular teaching qualifications which test a teacher's knowledge in specific areas of English language teaching. This session will briefly outline the content of the 5 TKT modules and provide information about the test.

TKT is designed to build confidence and is ideal for people who need to prove their teaching knowledge with a globally recognised certificate.

CELT-P (Primary) & CELT-S (Secondary) step by step

Aniella Giorgiana Busila

17:25 - 17:55

Are you a primary school teacher willing to develop classroom skills and teaching confidence? CELT-P is a practical English teaching qualification that gives you the relevant skills to get the best from 6–12 year-old learners. Are you a secondary school teacher looking for strategies for the key challenges of teaching English as a foreign language? CELT-S is the course you need. Join the presentation and find out how you can develop professionally while supported by Cambridge Assessment English step by step.

Defining and Evaluating Personalised Learning

Philip Kerr

17:55 - 18:40

One of the great promises of educational technology is its potential for personalising learning. But 'personalised learning' is often undefined, little more than an advertising slogan. For its potential to be realised, we need to be very clear about what we mean by the term. This presentation will explore the different aspects of personalised learning (including self-pacing, differentiated learning goals and learning materials, learning styles and preferences, meeting the needs of learners with specific learning differences) and what research is able to tell us about the effectiveness of personalised approaches.

CELTA & DELTA: The Gold standard in Teaching Qualifications

Sarah Ellis

18:45 - 19:15

For teachers who are considering gaining a recognised teaching qualification CELTA (Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages) and DELTA (Diploma in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages) qualifications are considered the gold standard and they develop both practical teaching skills and knowledge of methodology. In fact, CELTA is the most widely recognised English teaching qualification in the world.

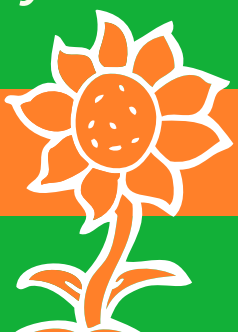

This session will give an overview of the two teaching qualifications and will outline what the qualifications cover and the differences between them. We will also consider the benefits of gaining these qualifications and how they will provide teachers with the techniques and confidence they need to teach successfully whether for teachers in the early stages of their career or for those with more experience.

Teacher Development Modules & Handbooks

Heidi Burrows

19:15 - 19:30

In this session we will take a look at the range of Cambridge online teacher development courses and discuss how they can help you to develop your teaching skills and confidence.
