Overview and outcomes

Train the Trainer is a practical course that gives experienced teachers the opportunity to develop their knowledge and skills to become teacher trainers.

The course develops generic training skills. Completing the course will also enable participants to provide training on CELT-P and CELT-S qualifications, and Language for Teaching courses.

By the end of this course, participants will:

- be familiar with key issues in planning and delivering teacher training sessions and courses
- have developed skills for designing and delivering teacher training sessions and courses
- have developed an understanding of good practice in observing teachers
- be able to give supportive feedback to teachers and prioritise key strengths and areas for development
- be able to plan and deliver effective teacher training courses
- be able to design an action plan for further development as a trainer.

Format

Face-to-face course with:

- 30 hours of contact time
- 10 hours of preparation and follow-up activities.

Course outline

The six course modules have a practical focus:

Module 1 - The training class

Module 2 - Analysing and designing training sessions

Module 3 - Delivering training sessions

Module 4 - Observing teachers

Module 5 - Managing feedback

Module 6 - Developing as a trainer
